ORDER:

Heard learned Counsel for the petitioner and also the learned Assistant Government Pleader.

In view of the fact that the property is in the custody of the Court of Wards, the Chief Commissioner of Land Administration in his letter No. NA2/19/2003, dated 02-08-2004, forwarded the representation filed by the first petitioner, Co-ordinator-cum-protector of Paigah Begumpet to the second respondent, for giving protection to the said individuals to safeguard interest of Court of Wards (Paigah lands) to prevent unauthorized constructions and encroachments in the Paigah open lands in Survey Nos.194/1, 194/8/1, 194/10, 194/12, which are under the Superintendence of the Court of Wards. On writing such letter, petitioners approached the second respondent for giving necessary protection. So far no orders have been passed and also the request made by the third respondent has not been complied with.

Having regard to the fact that the properties are in the custody of the Superintendence of Court of Wards viz., the third respondent herein, it is his bounden duty to safeguard the property. In view of the same, second respondent is hereby directed to comply the request made by the third respondent herein, as and when petitioners approach him for such protection.

With the observation as above, writ petition is disposed of. No costs.
